Unbridled Passion chronicles the journey of Shana Simmons back to God and toward the future that He has set out for her. Shana Simmons' life has been on a roller coaster ride since her husband announced that he had met someone else and was moving out. She brings her young daughter back to her hometown to care for her mother after she suffers a stroke. She takes over her mother's florist business even though she doesn't know the difference between lilacs and calla lilies. But with the help of handsome cowboy, Drake Eastman, she may just get her life turned around. Drake Eastman has felt God use him before to help people in times of crisis. But Shana Simmons causes him to continually question why God would put him in such close proximity to the beautiful Shana Simmons when he is having a hard time not noticing that she would be the perfect woman for him if she were single. Where was her husband anyway? Drake has to trust God and learns that things are not always as they appear.
