This book contains inspirational and encouraging thoughts for all readers to enjoy. This book also contains a brief interpretation of each poem to help guide readers in their understanding. These thoughts will make a wonderful collection for anyone who is searching for the right path, for love in our difficult age. My hope is that each reader will find their own meaning in these poems to help and guide them. May the glory of God touch each person's heart and bring you as much enjoyment as I experienced when writing these thoughts.
