Tacit Hatred: Rowdy & Snippy - Job 2 by Bren Vaughn

Rowdy Jones and Derrick Snippy Burrell are ex-military retired friends who own a bar in Royal Oak, Michigan and work privately for the US government when the need for unconventional means are needed to complete an assignment. This second book of their adventures find them searching for the son of an ISIS leader who has come to the United States seeking unsuspecting youths to join the cause. Three British citizens have been kidnapped and held for ransom in Syria by ISIS and need the son of the ISIS leader as a bargaining chip. Rowdy and Snippy are assigned the task of finding him and turning him over to the CIA without anyone suspecting the US is involved. But their search is delayed when Snippy's sister is killed by her husband and Snippy's mind can only focus on finding his brother-in-law and murdering him.
