Caspar Aide, after years of isolation and upon being set free, wanders off to a nearby town called Scintella. He is an out-of-townee but his poise and stature win him the heart of the Scintellians. As his world turns, he is entangled in woes of relationships that lead him to question about his true identity. He eventually succumbs to the woes and his life remains a mystery to himself first, and to those who were close to him in Scintella...
