Sarah's Sleepover Bobbie Rodriguez

Sarah and her cousins are all set for a sleepover weekend complete with hot chocolate, pillow fights, and ghost stories--until the power goes out in a storm and plunges them into total darkness. Sarah isn't worried. She is able to guide the rest of the girls safely through the pitch-black house because she is comfortable moving in the dark; Sarah is blind.

With a warm, sensitive text and richly atmospheric illustrations, Sarah's Sleepover will prompt young readers to reflect on how a person's differences can sometimes be their greatest strength.
