Girls can enjoy adventures with Melody Ellison in this three-book boxed set. They'll have a front-row seat to the budding Motown music scene, discover what it means to "raise your voice," and see what big changes are happening for the civil rights movement. They'll join a journey set in 1960s Detroit, where speaking up and singing out in the face of adversity is not always easy, but when challenges are met as a community, ordinary people can accomplish extraordinary things. Then they'll travel back in time to meet Melody in an exciting story that lets them choose what happens next! Paperback. Author: Denise Lewis Patrick. Ages 8+
