One of Satan's most effective strategies is to twist and destroy relationships with deception and bitterness. The enemy holds many people in bondage through addictions, abuse, strongholds and emotional pain that is not resolved. God restores them through godly love and truth. There is hope for a life of healing and overcoming by understanding your freedom and authority in Christ, a life where relationships are restored and our perception changes. This is a life where godly love and truth prevail and a barrier is set up against Satan. This book will help you understand why you are hurting, why your relationships are strained, and why you are surviving instead of thriving. It will also teach you how to minister to those that are hurting. Truth and Love are both important, but if the truth is not preceded by genuine love, the truth may not be seen... FIRST COMES LOVE.
