A newspaper reporter once asked John Wesley how it was that he could preach on a street corner and have hundreds of people on their faces, crying out to God for repentance? Wesley replied, "I just set myself on fire and they come to watch me burn!" Wesley was explaining something that many of the great revivalists understood. Scripture readily declares that God "makes His ministers a flame of fire" (Psalm 104:4). Who are these "firebrands" of God that shaped the Church in decades past? Who are these "burning ones" who grabbed hold of the flaming hand of God and "turned the world upside down" (Acts 17:6)? THE FIRE THAT ONCE WAS introduces us to these world changers, history makers, and soldiers of the cross. These are remarkable men and women of "whom the world was not worthy" (Hebrews 11:38). These "warriors" are part of that "great cloud of witnesses" prodding us on to "endure the race that is set before us" (Hebrews 12:1). As you read, you will stand in awe of the great revivalists Charles Finney, Evan Roberts, William Seymour, and others who did exceedingly "shake up and trouble their cities" (Acts 16:20)! You will pray unceasingly with John Hyde, Edward Payson, David Brainard, and Sarah Cooke--wrestling day and night, making "war on the floor," and shaking the earth to its foundation! In the midst of all this you will also be amazed at the healing power of God working through the hands of John G. Lake, Kathryn Kuhlman, and Smith Wigglesworth, who walked in a faith that could raise the dead. THE FIRE THAT ONCE WAS reveals the lives of ordinary people who stood toe-to-toe, nose-to-nose, eye-to-eye with the devil...and he blinked. These testimonies and stories will stir a great awakening in your heart and ignite the fire of revival in your spirit. It is time to boldly grab hold of the torch Jesus passed on to us when He said, "I have come to send fire in the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled" (Luke 12:49).
