Learning From Old Masters: Poems Jane Elkington Wohl

The old masters who have inspired this poet date back as far as the cave painters of early humankind. Also included are notable graphic artists, from Leonardo da Vinci to Albrecht Durer to Andy Warhol. In the arts of sculpture, music, and literature, she honors Bernini, Mozart, and Faulkner. We're in good company reading these poems. Wohl vividly describe landscapes from all over?Wyoming, Uganda, Cape Cod, Afghanistan, Vermont, and elsewhere. She shows these landscapes in all seasons, in all kinds of weather. Her poems contain great reverence and awe bordering on mysticism. She decries the shame of war, especially war in the Middle East, with compassion for the victims of collateral damage.
