Middle Window Elizabeth Goudge

Judy Cameron is ever so bored with London and her glamorous, perfect life. Stifled, her imagination seizes on a picture she sees in a shop window, a picture of the Scottish wilds. It inspires her.

Strong-willed, she prevails on her parents and fiance to change their summer plans and head for cold, damp Scotland--sure that there she will find the freedom she craves.

Elizabeth Goudge is known for her romantic portrayals of life in England during the early decades of the 20th century.
