Working to find the killer of a young man in the neighborhood, Greg is confronted with rumors that Leon, the publicly humiliated former Pastor of JMC has resurfaced for revenge on him and his wife. As these battles rage all around him, Greg finds himself having to also fight for his marriage when the advances of a beautiful young woman attempt to jeopardize all that he and Evan have built. But the closer that Greg gets to exposing the conspiracy behind the young man's murder, the more obvious it is that the case is anything but simple. Evidence leads him to the higher echelon of those in the community who hold more power and authority than he could have imagined with even deeper ties to his enemy than he could fathom. It is then that Greg is forced to reconcile his calling as a Pastor and his former career as a policeman to find out the truth. But the truth may be darker than expected when this Pastor is forced to fight for his family, his church and ultimately his life.
