Pork: South Florida boaters join forces with a Midwest horse racing community and a pet pig. John Hildenbrand

HERBIE THE HOG gets a pig's eye view of this world, from ruthless land developers, to the pigs of the political arena. The kidnapping and ransom trade of Central American drug cartels. He watches the thoroughbred racetrack people and their many friends from a small Midwest town, band together with South Florida's self sustaining sailboat liveaboards, in the true American fashion. He is quick to notice that the most important thing in life, to the high profile business moguls, isn't money or power but the love and well being of their families. Herbie sees all of this and still never mentions a word of it to anyone !
