This book takes you on a journey through the lives of others as they tell you stories about their trip to Bryce Canyon. Then it switches to information about the park. It paints the perfect scene which allows you to feel like you have visited before and allows you to get a general idea of what sites to visit before vacationing at this national park. It gives a chance for those who have visited to also be able to show their friends and family the beauty of the park and give them fun facts.
