For art enthusiast Angela, life seems to be going well. Not only has she managed to secure her own art gallery, but she's also managed to partner up with Adrian; a handsome and passionate alpha male who made his fortune in the art scene. Yes life has been going well... but as she's about to find out, it isn't always plain sailing. Having a powerful, bitter and obsessive ex boss is never a good thing. And when hers does his best to interfere in her life, Adrian takes matters into his own hands and shows Angela a new darker side. Angela has always known that her and Adrian are very different, yet had fallen for him regardless. But as more and more differences emerge, the question arises of whether their personalities will be compatible in the long term. Will the couple be able to prove that opposites attract? Or will their differences prove all too much for this couple? Find out in this hot new romance story by J A Fielding. A follow up to the hugely popular 'Basic Obsession' yet can be read as a stand alone story.
