Cultural Refugees: An Anthology of Poems Julie Mota

'Cultural Refugees: An Anthology of Poems' is an exploration on whether cultural immersions and transitional processes are producing cultural refugees in our midst. The different perspectives represented in this collection opens up the dialogue on how we Papua New Guineans look at our society, the changes that are happening and challenges us to discuss, embrace and pave a path forward for further exploration on the themes raised. It is a reflective collection that invites further dialogue even in informative and entertaining form.
