Russia from the Urals to Lake Baikal 1:2,000,000 Travel Map, waterproof, GPS-compatible, REISE

This map is waterproof and tear-resistant, double-sided to provide the best balance between a good scale and a convenient sheet size (size 100 x 70 cm / 39.5 x 27.5 in) with topographic and tourist information.

Coverage extends over south-central Russia at scale 1:2,000,000. The western half of the map starts well west of the Urals to include Kazan, Ulyanovsk and Samara, and extends north to Surgut. In the east the map ends just beyond Irkutsk (Lake Baikal itself is not included) and extends north to Ust-Ilimsk and the bend of the Angara. Names of larger and selected smaller towns are in both Cyrillic and Latin alphabets; smaller places, administrative units, geographical features and places of interest are in the Latin alphabet only.

Road and rail networks are easy to see on a clear base which presents the region's topography by altitude colouring with contours, numerous spot heights and names of mountain ranges. Swamps, marshes and seasonal lakes and rivers are also shown. Road network includes selected unsurfaced local roads and tracks, shows locations of petrol stations, gives driving distances on main and secondary routes, and indicates border crossings (including the M52 route from Novosibirsk across the Altai Mountains to Mongolia). The course of the Trans-Siberian railway line is easy to follow across the map and local airports are indicated.

National parks and protected areas are marked and symbols highlight various places of interest. The map has a latitude and longitude grid at intervals of 1° and an extensive index of place names, with an additional list of national parks. Multilingual legend includes English, the map is indexed. High quality German cartography.

For Lake Baikal, a separate map is available from the same publisher at scale 1:550,000.
